

Talking About the Weather

Level: B1/Low Intermediate

Duration: 60 minutes

Course Title: .....

Batch/Class: .....

Objective:

By the end of the lesson, students will be able to:

- Use common English expressions to talk about the weather.

Materials Needed:

- Whiteboard and markers
- Flashcards with key vocabulary (e.g., sunny, rainy, cloudy, etc.)
- Handouts with weather-related dialogues
- Pictures of different weather conditions (optional)

Warm-up (10 minutes):

- Begin the class by asking students about the weather today. Encourage them to describe it in their native language.
- Introduce the topic of the day: "Talking About the Weather: Common Expressions". Discuss the importance of this skill in daily conversation in English-speaking countries.

Presentation (15 minutes):

- Introduce key vocabulary related to weather. Use flashcards for visual aid and pronunciation practice.
- Use the whiteboard to write simple sentences about the weather and explain each part. For example, "It's sunny today.", "It's raining.", "It's cloudy."
- Show pictures of different weather conditions (if available) and practice describing them using the key phrases.

Practice (20 minutes):

- Distribute handouts with weather-related dialogues. Students practice the dialogues in pairs, taking turns in each role.
- Conduct a listening exercise where the teacher describes a weather condition. Students listen and then identify the correct weather condition from their handouts or flashcards.

Talking About the Weather

Level: B1/Low Intermediate

Duration: 60 minutes

Production (10 minutes):

- Role-play activity: Set up scenarios where students need to talk about the weather, such as meeting a friend, talking on the phone, or making small talk at a party. Encourage students to use the key vocabulary and phrases learned in the lesson.

Wrap-up (5 minutes):

- Review the key vocabulary and phrases. Ask students to provide examples of how to use them.
- Encourage students to practice talking about the weather in English outside of class. They can do this in their daily lives or by using English language learning apps or websites.

Homework:

- Write a short paragraph describing the weather for a week, using the key vocabulary and phrases.
- Listen to an English-language weather forecast online (provide a few recommended resources) and write down the key phrases used.

Assessment:

- Participation in class activities and discussions.
- Accuracy in the role-play activity.
- Completion and quality of homework assignments.

Teacher's Notes:

Happy Teaching!
